

CATPA COWMUNNICATOR – FEBRUARY 12, 2019

- The 2019 show season is rapidly approaching with the Charlie Young Memorial being the kickoff event this year. It is open to all levels of riders and will be a draw penning held on February 24th at the Bullpen. Please see the flyer on the CATPA website or on our Facebook account for further details. The show will be non-profit with all entry fees going to the payout once the expenses are paid.
- At the Charlie Young show, lunch will be available for a minimal fee.
- Memberships are due and are at the reduced price of $25 until the end of February. When filling out the forms please include the “Release of Responsibility Form” and the “Volunteer Levy” form and cheque. Our insurance company also requires that everyone not wearing a helmet completes an additional release form for safety equipment.
- Since the volunteer levy is generally in the form of a postdated cheque, this cannot be accepted by e-transfer, so must be sent in by mail.
- Sponsorship is a very large part of the income for our association and allows CATPA to supply prizes and added money to our finals that we would not be otherwise able to afford. Please think about the companies and businesses that you personally do business with and offer them a sponsorship package for our club. You as members have a much wider range of opportunities that the board does and your assistance would be appreciated. The cost of a cow sponsor is only $300 and many of you may be able to find a sponsor for that amount. If there are any questions, please call Mike Sibbald at 780-297-0446.
- We are encouraging all members to pay their entry fees by cheque or cash. E-transfers are difficult for us at this time for a variety of reasons. They will be accepted under extenuating circumstances.
- The beginner’s clinic still has a couple of spots left so encourage any #1 or #2 riders to sign up and attend. It is on February 23rd at the Bullpen.
